Month to month memberships will be billed on a monthly basis. Members have the right to provide notice of cancellation at any time and membership will terminate at the end of the current billing cycle.

*3 Month, 6 Month, and 1 Year Memberships will be billed on a monthly basis. Early termination fees may apply for members who cancel their membership prior to the end of the initial membership period. In the event a member wishes to cancel prior to the end of the initial membership period, they must provide New Day Yoga notification at least 30 days in advance of the date membership is to be cancelled. Early termination fees may apply based on the duration of the membership period remaining at the time of cancellation. Once the contract term has been met, membership will continue on a month to month basis at the same rate; members may then cancel their membership by providing 30 days notice with no termination fees.

Couples memberships limited to married couples, domestic partnerships, and couples residing in the same household.

Family memberships available to individual adults, married couples, domestic partners, and couples residing in the same household and includes all immediate family members 18 years or younger residing at the household, and students up to age 22 residing at the same residence.
